An amazing breakfast with the best regional products is served every day in a beautiful brick vaulted ceiling room with a pleasant terrace perfect for the warmer days.

This is an invitation to start the day in the best way possible with the famous Alentejo bread, the best cheeses and traditional sausages and hams, the most delicious homemade regional jams, not forgetting the exceptional olive oils and the typical sweet convent confections.

Located in the old XVII century kitchen, the Bar area maintains some of the original features as the sink or the original chimney, as well as the XVI century glazed tiles.

Its historical and relaxed atmosphere creates the perfect ambience to taste a wine from the region, a juice or a cocktail.

The outdoor terrace that extends the bar is the perfect setting to enjoy the views, the warm afternoons and sunsets or summer nights enjoying a drink and some traditional delicacies, making the most of this historical and pleasant stay right in the charming city centre of Évora.
